

Do not open up the do not call list, leave it the way it is.
There is enough junk mail from banks that you have to go through,
I do not want to have the phone being used like the mail is for banks and the like.